Odd Socks Day

This week we celebrated 'Odd Socks Day' in school to show that it's okay to be different and to stand up against bullying and discrimination. It is seen as a symbolic gesture to embrace individuality and to support others in doing the same. As part of our learning we read the story 'Simon Sock' which celebrates differences. You can watch the story by clicking on the picture below:

Be an Expert Learner

This week Year 5 have started an exciting project called 'Adopt a Player with the Halle Orchestra. We also have 3 new Game Changers who are our new advocates for girls' football in school.

Be a Fundraiser

Thank you to everyone who donated £1 to Children in Need. We had a fantastic time celebrating in school with a 'Gladiators' themed obstacle course and an epic battle of the teachers!

SUPERSTAR LEARNERS OF THE WEEK

These children have impressed their teachers this week with their dedication and super attitude to their learning!
