

Great Britain

Next half term we will be learning about Great Britain. We will learn about the countries of Great Britain, its seas and also the Capital cities.

Your learning project for this half term is to create your own Union Jack flag—make it as creative as you like. I have attached a Union Jack template to help you. We can't wait to see your creative Union Jack's—they are worth 4 stamps!

